

INSTRUCTION / RULES /GUIDELINES

Summer camps are great avenues for kids to have alternative and specialized methods for learning. Often, summer camps are avenue for children and teenagers to improve and acquire special skills from which would not normally be taught in schools. One such examples of a specialised summer camp program is the summer art camp, which specializes in teaching art to campers extensively. Summer Art Camp programs teach campers on art appreciation and help enhance their imagination in order to create a wonderful masterpiece. From sketching and drawing, Summer art camp programs teach in -depth artistry of painting and its different forms where a camper may develop his own style. It also teaches the basis technicalities of art which would yield quality results. Enrolling kids to summer art camp helps them get perspective of what avenues they may take with their passion for art such as architectural design, interior design, or graphic design, among others.
